

Profile of a Cardiology Practice
Table of Contents

Summary

- 1 Legal structures, ownership and times in existence
Corporate names and addresses, locations and dates of incorporation of each entity in the group. Ownership of each. Status and duration of operating licenses.
- 2 Descriptions of Locations
Addresses, descriptions of premises, structures and terms of leases.
- 3 Organization of employees and independent contractors
Organization charts covering both employees and independent contractors.
Resumes or background descriptions of key employees.
Details of employee contracts.
Details of contractual arrangements with independent contractors.
- 4 Services Provided by Practice and Marketing of Same
Major equipment and capabilities of same.
Services to patients by location and by provider. Percentages of entire practice.
Trends in services provided over recent years.
Marketing structures and programs.
- 5 Hospital Affiliations and Privilege Arrangements
Details of affiliation and privilege arrangements.
Importance to practice of each arrangement.
- 6 Referral Sources
Referral sources for individual locations or for individual services.
Trends in referral sources
- 7 Sources of Revenue--Medicare, Medicaid, Insurance Payors, Direct Payments
Patient counts by sources of revenue.
Trends by sources over recent years.
- 8 Recordkeeping
Manual or electronic medical record systems.
Degree of completeness and orderliness.
Billing systems. In house or outsourced.
- 9 Practice policy systems.
Clinical protocol policy statements.
Administrative policy statements.
Human resource policy statements.
- 10 Financial/Legal Structures
Financial/accounting/bookkeeping arrangements. Cash or accrual accounting.
Level of outside review--compiled, reviewed or audited statements.
Banking arrangements.
Tax return preparation.
Outside counsel arrangements.
Past and current litigation, investigations or other regulatory matters.
- 11 Financial Statements
Three years of internal financial statements for each corporate entity.
Three years of tax returns of each corporate entity.
- 12 Discussions of Financial Statements
Most recent completed year of operations by entity.
Most recent interim results by entity.
Assets and liabilities as of most recent month end.
Future obligations not appearing as liabilities, by entity.
- 13 Owner's Reorganization Objectives
Continued ownership participation, an employment or an independent contractor deal.
Continued employment for key employees.
Other objectives.